

NYACOP Competition Winners

The 2014 AGO Silent Auction is underway and will conclude with the closing of the convention at Midnight, Friday, June 27! Participate online at www.BiddingForGood.com/AGO. We have a stunning inventory of auction items that include airline tickets, hotel nights, private tours, sailing, fine art, food, wine, organ music and books, baseball tickets, an opportunity to play the Wanamaker Organ in Philadelphia, and much more!

Do you plan to attend an upcoming AGO Regional or National Convention? Place a bid for your convention registration! AGO Chapters and other presenting organizations will want to take advantage of the vast offerings of recitals and workshops donated by world-class musicians and educators, as well as a guest appearance at your event by Pipedreams Producer and Host Michael Barone.

All proceeds from the Silent Auction will benefit the AGO Annual Fund. Thank you for your support. Questions? Contact F. Anthony Thurman, fathurman@agohq.org

Mid Atlantic Regional Meeting

Wednesday at 11:00 am, the Mid-Atlantic Region meeting will be held in Clarendon/Berkeley, 3rd Floor, 160, Marriott. Members of the region: plan to attend! In addition to some social time, our regional councilor, Glenn Rodgers, will have business of the region. We will hear about plans for the Pittsburgh regional convention, June 21-24, 2015, and the door prize will be a free registration to this convention! You must be present to win! So, resist the temptation to skip this meeting, and join us for information and a winning chance!

West Regional Meeting

AGO members from Regions VIII and IX:

Be sure to attend the first ever West Region meeting on Wednesday at 11:00 am! Join us as we celebrate the "merger" of our two great regions, welcome our new Hong Kong chapter and meet Matthew Burt, new West Region Councilor. You won't want to miss the opportunity to win one of the fabulous door prizes, including a free registration to the 2015 Regional Convention!

ONCARD

Online National Collection and Remittal of Dues

The AGO staff invites you to stop by the AGO National Headquarters Exhibit Booth #708-710 any time during exhibit hours to renew your membership for 2014-2015. You can renew through ONCARD or pay by check. Chapter officers are welcome to come by and learn about ONCARD's chapter administration features including updating officer and member rosters and viewing remit reports. Leah Semiken, AGO's Manager of Membership and Chapter Relations, along with other members of the AGO staff will be pleased to answer your questions about ONCARD

The Canadian International Organ Competition (CIOC) is here at the AGO convention in full force! CIOC 2014 jury members James David Christie, Janette Fishell and Joan Lippincott are all giving recitals as well as past CIOC winners Christian Lane and Jens Korndörfer. CIOC Artistic Director, John Grew, and Executive Director, Thomas Leslie, are attending the convention, so please feel free to ask them questions about the competition. If you are interested in having a CIOC winner give a recital at your church, please leave a message for Thomas Leslie at the information desk.

Anyone who has attended or participated in the CIOC is invited to join us for an informal Photo Op immediately following Joan Lippincott's recital on Thursday night (June 26, 8:45 PM) at First Lutheran Church, Boston.

Trinity Church in the City of Boston: Convention attendees are welcome to tour Trinity Church without charge upon presentation of your convention name badge. Hours are 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM daily. Please visit the Trinity Bookshop on the lower level.

Workshop Handouts are available on the Convention website. Find the workshop description and click on "Handouts".
