

The AGO President's Award, created in 1988, is presented biennially to recognize outstanding contributions to the art of the organ in the United States. It was presented to Christoph Wolff "in gratitude for his exhaustive musicological research, extensive publications, and lifelong commitment to the music of Johann Sebastian Bach."

A Thousand Pictures and Counting

Feel free to access our web portfolios to mail home images for your texts, tweets, blogs, chapter newsletters, and FB entries. These images will be better than what you would be able to take with your smart phones and pocket cameras, because the photographer are using high-end professional press cameras, and are exclusively permitted to access vantage points where no attendees are permitted.
